

May Heaven Strike Me Down

Dezperadoz

Now darkness falls across the land
I'm still there on my way
I follow him through desert sand
Through haze and through the rain
Still can't believe what he has done
He took my love away
All or none, my chance is gone
...it might be that I'm born in deep disgrace
My stony promised way
Live my fate to keep the faith
It's maybe not too late
For me to ride against the skies
With Jesus by my side
I pay the price for a paradise

When heaven will send a poor man down
And no one will be turned around
For those who pray for a judgement day
I'll shot him to the ground
May heaven strike me down

That divine sight, it takes my breath
It takes my breath away
I raise my hands up to the light
With a gun and start to pray
Will climb the stairs into the air
To our deathless kingdom come
The sinner's head under my arm

Now darkness falls across the land
I'm still there on my way
I follow through the desert sand
Through haze and through the rain
