

Oriental Saloon

Dezperadoz

searching for a lucky game or been thirsty by the way come on boys and listen to me don't pray the god that you should see a place where all the honest men the desert mice, the desert rats - wholesome honey, stay alive if you are dry step in and try we'll take you to the valley's green you'll hear the distant fairy sing pretty maids bear up your pall walk in and find your chance for sale

forget the plagues within your life in this hive we're all alive right down the freemont street you'll find the loyal and the proud unite enjoy before you leave the town and don't forget to turn around make your path straight to the moon

rattle your spurs and swing your legs dancing to the girls request come on fellow fill up your glass to the health of our glorious class see the splendid flowers grow before the rain begins to fall even whiskey to your mind best that you will ever find

the scrapping of the drunken boys exuberance, ain't got no choice are sinners now senseless grown night careers they start to flow the whipping of the willing whores your soul can really wish no more for noble hearts and blushing wimps the outlaw rock'n'roll begins
