

No Looking Back

DGM

No regret is runnin' through my face
Everything is ok
No one here wants let me say: "I trust in you"
You can buy nice things to cover you
Shit is still out of here
Can you give yourself another chance to live your life?

But I have to learn before I forget it
I can't burn an empty fire

You need me I won't look back
And crawling down, baby
You feel me
And I need much strength
To let you go away

Now I feel the world around me again
Everything is ok
No one here wants let you say: "I love you"
You can't buy myself
With an empty dream
Can you try to give yourself a chance to really love?

You feel a stranger
You need salvation
You feel a stranger
You need my passion

You're fading away from me and cry
