

Faceless

Diablo

am no-one I am no-one to judge you who cannot read between their lies Oh, I can't blame you

They're hiding into the shadows of those words
Guiding you into the sea of lies Never telling you who is god of all this misery

I am no-one
I am no-one to take the pain away from your soul Wake up and open your eyes

WAKE UP!

Faceless
You will hate yourself
Faceless
In the end of the line you will see

I am no-one
I am no-one to save you
But I still can't understand why they have done this to you
