

Kathryn

Diablo

It's 5 in the morning
And she is staring at the doorway
Somewhere out of touch
She feels the rain falling down on her face
And her tears tell us something 'bout her state

Kathryn I see
You don't belong here

Only in the shadows of the night she is
Safe from the nightmares
The pain felt in daylight
Soon she'll realize that here everything is nothing
And her heart will be broken once again

Kathryn I see
You don't belong here
Where heat is on
Can't you see you're feeding me
Your flesh so bittersweet
It's killing you, it's killing me
It's killing me, baby

[Solo]

Kathryn I see
You don't belong here
Where heat is on
Can't you see you're feeding me
Your flesh so bittersweet
It's killing you, it's killing me
