Evil In Disguise

Diabolic

Evil!

A different breed of animal Somewhere driven by death Every breath is dead air Leaving millions in despair

A gift that no one can believe Seventy two virgins, their motive to kill To spend eternity in bliss All they gave was one last wish

Cunning and deceptive They had a master plan Years in the making To kill as many as they can

Evil in disguise Evil from the skies Mission from the master The end is coming faster

The hate will never stop For those who avenge us Mentality of carnage Offered to their kind

Ancient hatred destroyed Future hatred deployed Ancient hatred destroyed Future hatred deployed
