

Lonely Soul

Diabolus In Musica

If I only could erase all my memories
And begin another time to live
I would turn my heart into steel
I feel living is so painful
That I think I can't go on
It kills me

Cause your soul still lingers here
In my dreams, in me...

How to find my way
How to get the strength
How to feel that I'm alive
I wonder why can't go away with you
I must be strong
I feel all alone

If I one could stop
The blank that grows in my mind
Sending flowing tears away
From here

How to find my way
How to get the strength
How to feel that I'm alive
I wonder why can't go away with you
I must be strong
I feel all alone

I will go on loving you
Until the end
Of time
Even though you're gone
