

Just Another Heart

Diamond Rio

You treat love like a game
But you don't play by any rules
You keep an ace held up your sleeve
For any unsuspectin' fool
I thought I would be different
So I did not expect
That to you I'd be another
Heart in the deck

Just another heart
For you to shuffle around
Just a little part
Of a bigger game that's going down
I don't like this deal
So I'll get out while I still can
I don't want to be
Just another heart in your hand

Like a riverboat gambler
Someday you'll lose your touch
To a smooth operator
Who cheats you out of love
When your diamonds turn to teardrops
When your gold begins to rust
It's then you will know this feeling
Of running out of trust I'm

Just another heart
For you to shuffle around
Just a little part
Of a bigger game that's going down
I don't like this deal
So I'll get out while I still can
I don't want to be
Just another heart in your hand

I can't take anymore
Of what you're not giving me
I can live with a lot
But I don't want to be

Just another heart
For you to shuffle around
Just a little part
Of a bigger game that's going down
I don't like this deal
So I'll get out while I still can
I don't want to be
Just another heart in your hand

I don't like this deal
'Cause I don't want to be
Just another heart in your hand

You treat love like a game
But your don't play by any rules
