

You'll Find Me

Diamond Rio

Up and off to work again,
Going through the motions
I bet she tried to warn me
And I didn't even notice
'Til I got home and found her gone
Left with just a letter
Folded with a key on top
Sitting on the dresser
I opened it
It simply read

Look and you will find me
I won't be that far
I'll be right here
Waiting for you with open arms
I don't want to live without you
But I can't go on like this
Torn between the man I love
And the one I'm living with
It's a conflict of emotion
To my heart I must be true
I know that I need you
But you have to need me too
So if you get home
And miss me in your life
You'll find me

I called her family
Asked everyone who knows her
Telling them in detail
All the things I should have told her
How much she really means to me
And how much I'm regretting
But so far no one's heard from her
And all that I am left with
Is how I let her go
And the letter she wrote
Saying you'll find me

I spent the next eight hours wondering
Where on earth you were
It was getting late, I was getting tired
And growing more concerned
When all at once it hit me,
That piano bar back home
Where I asked you to marry me
And there you were alone

I knew I would find you
And how it warmed my heart
To see you right there
Waiting for me with open arms
Said I don't know where I'm going,
The thought of life without you
Is something I just can't live with

To my heart I must be true
You told me that you need me
Well, girl I need you too
So if you come home
And want me in your life
You'll find me
You'll find me
