

Just Leaving

Diana Anaid

With all the stuff that's on my plate sometimes I can't get a smile to come to my face and with all the shit thats going on now I can't even sit up straight I can't even look around

where do you get off
waiting for the future
as if already's not enough
and where do you stop
if you cant stop here
then the truth is too much

you don't see me
you don't hear me
I can work it out
without your near me
come help me
you're just leaving
turn it all around
on to me
I'm not sleeping
I'm not eating
I can do without this feeling

I wonder what side of the world I've been in treated like a baby
in the arms of stupid men
and to other people
who had the chance to warm me if you walked way
you were just leaving me falling

where do you get off

you don't see me
you don't hear me
without your near me
on to me
I'm not eating

when everything is said before you can be a stranger when I needed something more and instead of every space between us savour every moment as if it was unlost

where do you get off
as if already not enough

you don't see me
you don't hear me
on to me

I don't need it
don't believe it
you're the only one I needed
