

Thought I Told Ya

DeGarmo, Diana

U had me fooled, spun me 'round
Treated me better than anyone
But in my truck, I couldn't believe
What I saw, I felt so deceived

A drunk call was louder than my radio
Did u forget where u are?
How did I get stuck with such an idiot?
I let u drink, let u smoke but u won't pull this crap on me
Uh-uh

Thought I told ya
My mama didn't work hard to raise no fool
Thought I told ya
You're an angel face with the Devil's tools
Thought I told ya
This is not how I pictured u on your knees
Thought I told ya
Now would be the time for u to beg and plead
Hey, hey!
I thought I told ya
I thought I told ya what kind of woman I am

U pulled my strings from the start
Can't believe u ever owned my heart
With everything I did for u
This is what u go and do

The tears fall down now but you're full of it
I won't fall for that trap
How did I get stuck with such an idiot?
I let u sleep, let u gamble, but u won't get away with this
No

Thought I told ya
My mama didn't work hard to raise no fool
Thought I told ya
You're an angel face with the Devil's tools
Thought I told ya
This is not how I pictured u on your knees
Thought I told ya
Now would be the time for u to beg and plead

Why can't it be the way that I always imagined it?
You're a knight on a bright, white horse
U saved me with the perfect kiss

Hey, hey, I thought I told ya
I thought told ya what kind of a woman I am
Hey, hey, I thought I told ya
Thought I told ya

Thought I told ya
I would always treat u right and leave u wanting more
Thought I told ya
If I ever caught u cheating, you'd be out that door
Thought I told ya

I'll be a kind of love to chew as sweet as candy
Thought I told ya
I'm the kind of woman u don't mess with me

Hey, hey!
I thought I told ya
I thought I told ya what kind of woman I am
Hey, hey!
I thought I told ya
I thought I told ya what kind of woman I am
