

Me & You

Diana Vickers

Can't explain what it is
It takes my heart on a ride
The thought of seeing you
You teach me more everyday
You lived your life more than me
It's no bother, it's you I see

Who knows what happens now?
One day things will change, I know
But today, here and now
I don't have any doubts at all

That it's me and you, stuck like glue
Soul to soul, home from home
Perfect too, me and you

I don't know why I'm afraid
It's losing you that I dread
I shudder at the thought
You are the medicine jar
You're the court and the spark
I'll love you when I'm old

Who knows what happens now
When we take our final bow?
But today, here and now
I don't have any doubts at all

That it's me and you, stuck like glue
Soul to soul, home from home
Perfect too, me and you

Stuck like glue
Soul to soul, home from home
Perfect too, me and you
Perfect too, it's just me and you
