

Fire Escape

Diane Birch

Goodbye my love
I'll be seeing you when the lights go
When I put my head on the pillow
I'll think of you

My crimson dove
Wish that I could save you from the sadness
But honey all around me lies' the madness
Ooh of your love

What makes the price
Good enough to wanna pay

What makes the hurt go away?
The fire escape?
When all that I can do is ache
Cuz you've gone away
You've gone away

My bleeding heart
It ain't gonna be the same without you
Aw to think of all the we've been thru
Oh I know I know

Love makes the price
Good enough to wanna pay

But it don't make the hurt go away
The fire escape
When all that I can do is ache
Cuz you've gone away
You've gone away

Oh go away
Let the fire escape
All that I can do is ache
Since you've gone away
Oh you've gone away
