

Tongue tied and twisted
It always comes out wrong
Comes out wrong

There's a time bomb ticking
You've only got so long
Got so long

Who's gonna hear your prayers
If you don't, if you won't
Who's gonna sing your song
If you don't, if you won't

Don't stop walkin'
Baby please stop talkin'
When you hear the guns fire
Don't listen
When you see the sky turn black
Keeping holding
The hole in your chest where your
Heart used to be
'Cos tomorrow will come and
It might be a little more unfucked
Just a little more unfucked

Dark angels calling
Oh so sweet and low
Sweet and low
Like a fast car coming
It's gone before you know
Before you know

Who's gonna say your prayers
If you don't, if you won't
Who's gonna stitch up you
If I don't, if I won't

Don't stop walkin'
Baby please stop talkin'
When you hear the guns fire
Don't listen
When you see the sky turn black
Keeping holding
The hole in your chest where your
Heart used to be
It might be a little more unfucked
Just a little more unfucked
