

Just My Imagination

Dianne Reeves

Each day through my window I watch him as he passes by
I say to myself, "You're such a lucky girl"
To have a boy like him is truly a dream come true
Out of all the girls in the world he belongs to me

But it was just my imagination runnin' away with me
It was just my imagination runnin' away with me

Soon we'll be married and raise a family
Have a cozy little home out in the country with two children, maybe three
I tell you I, I can visualize it all
This couldn't be a dream for too real it all seems

But it was just my imagination once again runnin' away with me
It was just my imagination runnin' away with me

Every night on my knees I pray, dear Lord, hear my plea
Don't ever let another take his love from me or I will surely die
His love is heavenly when his arms enfold me I hear a tender rhyme
But in reality he doesn't even know my name, oh what a shame

For it was just my imagination runnin' away with me
And runnin' and runnin'
It was just my imagination once again runnin' away with me
It was just my imagination runnin' away with me

Just my imagination
In the windmills of my mind I would think about him all the time
Just my imagination
But he didn't even know my name, oh what a shame
Well, it was just my imagination
