

A Dark Embrace

Diary of Dreams

Sometimes it feels like I always keep falling into the void and into the blue
I wish I knew why it all stays the same
Whatever I do, wherever I go

See me drown in your abyss
Watch me wander in the dark
See me drown in your abyss
Watch me wander in the dark

A secret lies hidden in my mortal core
Never forgotten companions for life
The darkest embrace, so fragile but light
My burden indeed, a blissful delight

The darkness in me always will be there
The darkness in me will never let go
See me drown in your abyss
Watch me wander in the dark
