

Congratulations

Diary of Dreams

My words may seem cruel
At times I regret ...
When my tongue is in rage
I tend to forget
but life remains the same
but life remains the same

What have we become?
A cynical crowd
Sarcastic and tempted Why are we so proud?
but life remains the same
but life remains the same

Congratulations - you're so pitiful Congratulations - you're so immature Congratulations - you wasted my life for yours

There are things in life you just can't foresee Incidents and accidents
You blame the world for your pain
but life remains the same
but life remains the same

There are people that try to manipulate They want you to believe ... to follow their path
but life remains the same
but life remains the same
