

Nobody Left to Blame

Diary of Dreams

Until you put your spell on me
I did not know - who you are
A little incantation now
You hypnotize the crowd

According to you
No-body else does matter now
According to you
Nothing else does matter now

Your wings can spread around the world
Take all our sun away
Absorb the human pleasure dome
A lifetime in despair

I wonder how you lie to me without the use of words
I wonder why you came to me without a look into my eyes
