

The pride of the moment
Lost now in memories
The truth of this beauty
In vague saturation

Embarrassed in silence
Incantation implied
A true liberation
That no-one can fight

Please let the rain fall down on me
Please let me feel the miracles of life

Stranded in peace
The joy of a weakness

No fear of seclusion

A life of it's own
You love your illusions
Without them, you're lost

Please let the rain wash away all my tears
Please let me learn the spell of confusion

With endless compulsion
Confess your defeat
The obvious reason
No need for a trial

Put an end to this fight
Take a rest from your odyssey
Let go of your world
Find peace here tonight
