Diary of Dreams

A virus has been born
It was to rage for 5 days
Don't promise paradise to our kind if you don't know where it is

I celebrate this moment without you by my side
My kingdom born to shatter, in shelter to survive

Take me back
Please take me back
Take me back
Please take me back

Brothers in arms
Prepared to let go
The curtain now closes
to put an end to the show

Take me back
Please take me back
Take me back
Please take me back

When the teardrops fall
Ignore the call

When the teardrops fall
Ignore the call

Take me back
Please take me back
Take me back
Please take me back

Take me back
Take me back

Please take me back
Please take me back
