

The Luxury Of Insanity

Diary of Dreams

This very moment
I embrace all I have
Nothing to urge for
And nothing to lose
I endure the insane,
Survive every pain
Bear every burden
And feel no more
Shame for you

For you
For you
For you
Feel no more shame for you

Again I walk faster,
A goal on my mind
My heart is still raging,
I shiver like mad
I focus again
And stare into nowhere
Swallow the floods to see
Nothing is left for me

For me
For me
For me

My vice, my skin,
My flesh, my sin
You will be born
From the ashes of our souls
My time has come,
I will be done
You will be born
From the ashes of our souls

The future lies bare
And has nothing to hide
We live for the moment
Suppress what we feel
Hold on to the pain
It proves you're alive
Shattered we seem,
Let me drown in the end for yo

For you
For you
For you
Drown in the end for you

The future lies bare
Suppress what we feel

It proves you're alive
Shattered we seem,
Let me drown in the end for yo

For you
For you
For you
Drown in the end for you

My vice, my skin,
My flesh, my sin
You will be born
From the ashes of our souls
My time has come,
I will be done
You will be born
From the ashes of our souls

This very moment
I embrace all I have
Nothing to urge for
And nothing to lose
I endure the insane,
And feel no more
Shame for you
