

Give Me One Good Reason

Dickey Lee

Give me one good reason not to go tell me why I shouldn't leave
today

Give me one good reason not to walk away hmm hmm

I'm only made of flash and blood and I've had about all I can take

You keep playing with my love as if my heart could never break

You stayed out late and never call sometimes I wonder if you cared at all

Give me one good reason not to go tell me why I shouldn't leave

Give me one good reason not to walk away and I'll stay and I'll stay

We used to sing in harmony the sweetest sound I've ever heard

But now our song is out of key and you forgotten all the words

You run around fancy free don't you know how bad you've hurtin' me

So give me one good reason...
