River, Run Me Dry

A thousand faces On a grey, grey day A million houses Under dull, dark sky

So much noise and So little time Oh river, run me dry

A natural world With these strange men's votes Go back home And lock your door

So much noise and So little time Oh river, run me dry

River, run me dry Oh river, run me dry Oh river, run me dry Oh river, run me dry

Those big palm trees On an ocean breeze Pico butter And deep blue seas A thousand miles Of clear blue sky Taking time to let it pass me by

An empty space To my open door A turning fan On a wooden floor Drift away In the sweet sunshine Welcome to this world of mine

Oh river, run me dry Oh river, run me dry Oh river, run me dry Oh river, run me dry

Oh river, run me dry...
