A superstar rapper, making big money, know what I mean girl?
But my daddy told me I was living in a dream world
If I said "yes dad" I wouldn't have my zef swag
Or fly round the whole fucking world, getting jet-lagged
Getting bitten by the zef bug it's the best drug
If I played it safe, I would've never made it ever
Now every day in every way I get a little zeffer
No matter what you smoke, you'll never get as high as me
It's like a fat fuck you, when these naaierz see

Baby I'm my angel, sent from the dark side
Took my brush-cut to the next wif peroxide
Oh my god, that's such a fresh switch
Yeah, whatever, just don't touch the hair bitch
Everybody's crying saying: hip-hop's dead
Till a white South African hip-hop head

Pop's up, on the scene saying: It's not dead!
I'm here, can I get the fucking aah yeah?
Rappers looking at me like I just crawled out the drain
The underground got me be bored out of my brain
An this pop-rap bullshit all sound the same
God help you if i call out your name
From the dark side of the moon
I zoom out a gloom doom-doom!
The room goes bum like a cartoon
The dark raver has cum, my mic-saber is on
Turn and tell your friends: Yo this is my favorite song!

I rub my dick on expensive shit
I rub my dick on expensive shit
It's like a dream come true,
I'm living the dream bru
Rubbing my dick on expensive shit

I rub my dick on expensive shit
I rub my dick on expensive shit
It's like a dream come true,
I'm living the dream bru
Rubbing my laaney totti op watokal
