

Hate

Die Apokalyptischen Reiter

Too much animal too less human
Are between good and bad.
Violence, egoism are with you
Through you wanna love.

Hate, love, war, compassion
Tear apart in a bad agony
You've done good deeds
But in the end you'll be gone.

But the human animal will die
In cause of self-destruction in a furious avidity
In the end there won't be any might man.
Only day and night as from the beginning of time age!
