Hate

Die Apokalyptischen Reiter

Too much animal too less human Are between good and bad. Violence, egoism are with you Through you wanna love.

Hate, love, war, compassion Tear apart in a bad agony You've done good deeds But in the end you'll be gone.

But the human animal will die In cause of self-destruction in a furious avidity In the end there won't be any might man. Only day and night as from the beginning of time age!
