

Deep Zone

Die Form

Why your eyes are so closed?
Why your skin is so blue?
Can't you move, can't you cry?
Can't you let me come with you?

Why your legs are so stiff?
Why your lips are so black?
Can't you thrill, can't you blow,
Can't your heart beat and drum?

I wish to see in your mind,
I want to come inside you...
I wish to be your past,
I want to be your future.

I'm drowning, in the deep zone...
