Die Happy

Cry For More

I wanna be cool - to keep your friends amused
I wanna be beautiful - to celebrate the muse
I wanna be high - entertain you when you're blue
I wanna be wise - just because of you

Maybe then you would see me
Maybe then you would care
but there's more to love than meets the eye

Would you cry for more
If your Love was truly blind
Could you cry for more
If it's only me you find
It's kicking me down

I wanna be strong - to match your every move
I wanna be crazy - to myriad of moods
I wanna be bright - to stand out in the crowd
I wanna be brave - to make you proud

Maybe then you would see me
Maybe then you would care
but there's more to love than meets the eye

Would you cry for more
If your Love was truly blind
Could you cry for more
If it's only me you find
It's kicking me down
It's kicking me down
It's kicking me down

Would you cry for more
If your Love was truly blind
Could you cry for more
If it's only me you find
