

Genuine Venus

Die Happy

She is walking down the street
Oh my god, she is so sweet
Can you really trust your eyes
Milk and honey, milk and honey

She's got those supermodel legs
She'd be the bacon on your eggs
There's nothing you want more, than no
Spend your money, throw your money

Away - away
She'll stay
As long as you want to pay

She's gorgeous
She's the genuine venus
Just like a Marilyn
And you know you'd do
Anything, anything

You're a star she is your satellite You're the man and she's your shining light
Like a diamond in the sky

She comes to you and says: Hello !
Don't I know you from before ?
Do you wanna take me home ! ?
She wants your money, wants your money

Look at her pearl necklace teeth
A warning you don't wanna see
Is she directly from hell ?
She wants your money, take your money

Come on - Let's dance
Come on - Angel face
