

The End

Die Happy

You never know
Where People go
You never know
There is just hope

What a day
What a life
What a man
What a wife
What a smile
What a perfect vision

What a lie
What a cramp
What a try
What a feint
What a friend
What an indecision

I guess you knew
I guess you know
That you two
Were alone
Sinner who
Throw a stone
That's easy

Now you know
It's for sure
It's a fact

Saturday
Stupid day

Refrain:
You reach the end
Finally you understand

Who drives your tears
When nobody knows that you're sad

You reach the end
And I hope for you
I really do
I really do

Get well soon

Now you're down
Underground
And the rain
Makes a sound
As the drops
Fly around your sorrow

Questionmarks
Fill your mind

No more place
To be found
Little hope
For a better tomorrow

Who is who
who are you
Counting tears
Peekaboo
Happy you
Maybe soon you'll know better

It's what you do

Hello sun...hello blue sky
Here we are...you'll be here when i'm gone
Will you remember me?

Somebody said each days gods masterpeace
I only hope there will be more for me

If I knew the answer making me understand
I'm counting the hours counting the happy days
There's so much more i want to say
Can anyone save me?
I don't want to fade away!

Hello spring I'm like you but feel like autumn
It's to soon to let go to late to change it all
