

Crossfire

Die Krupps

gunshots fill the air - salute our bliss night bursts into flames - greets the final kiss death comes without a sound - rings the wedding bell target hits the ground - honeymoon in hell shot - shot by both sides in a war that won't cease they give their lives unheard cry for peace cities under siege - where the snipers strike lovers out of reach - yearning out in the night take your lovers hand - meet your destiny down in noone's land - for eternity

...

CROSSFIRE! CROSSFIRE!
