Die Krupps

what happened to my life what happened to my pride i'm a victim of your love i can't cope with this world no longer you have my fate in your hands i'm on the verge of self destruction i don't see a way out if this was your intention to turn me inside out what's the reason of my life there's no pleasure in my heart now i'm disillusioned and i had so much more in mind
