Internal Revolution

Internal revolution That rapes my confidence And leaves me bleeding

I cannot, I cannot bleed Falter on my crusade I cannot, I cannot stop Trudging on

Internal revolution Can't ease my bothered mind Did I choose wrong No time for Inquiry Time marches on

Through this lucid pane of glass See your life I wanted for my own Crystal clear pane of glass Is it time for me to break through

Slowly losing sight
Of what I sought to find
Have I wasted
Oh, have I wasted
Wasted my life
Losing sight
Of the corridor I thought is Right for me
The time begins to tie down faster everyday, everyday
Losing sight
Crushing my one vision to
See the light
The light that is so overbearing, try to see, try to look

Through this lucid pane of glass See your life I wanted for my own Crystal clear pane of glass Is it time for me to break through

Losing sight
