

Here on Earth

Dierks Bentley

Standing here on this cold ground
Tears falling down in the dirt
This world keeps spinning round and round but You're lying still in the dirt

Don't wanna swim in this darkness
Drown in a whiskey sea
But there's no making sense of the senseless while this Pain is killing me

There's not a stone in my heart I've left unturned
Not a piece of my soul that I ain't searched
The only answer I found for all this hurt
Is there ain't not answer here on earth

I ain't the best of believers
Ain't at the front of the church
I've read the words of the teacher but I
Still struggle with what it's all worth cause

There's not a stone in my heart I've left unturned
Not a piece of my soul that I ain't searched
The only answer I found for all this hurt
Is there ain't not answer here on earth

I wish that I could be stronger
I wanna have that kind of faith
But even if I did, I still wonder cause
Nothing would change

You're gone, you're gone, you're gone, you're gone, you're gone
Cause you're gone, you're gone, you're gone, you're gone, you'r e gone
Please help me believe
I'm on my knees
Help me believe

There's not a stone in my heart I've left unturned
Not a piece of my soul that I ain't searched
The only answer I found for all this hurt
Is there ain't not answers here on earth
Down here on earth
There's no answers here on earth

Here on earth
