

Settle for a Slowdown

Dierks Bentley

I must look just like a fool here in the middle of the road standing there in your rearview and getting soaked to the bone this land is flat as it is mean a man can see for a hundred miles So I'm still praying I might see the glow of a brake light.

But your wheels just turn,
down the road ahead
If it hurts at all
you aint showed it yet
I keep a lookin' for the slightest sign that you might miss what you left behind
I know there's nothing stopping you now but I'd settle for a slowdown.

I held on longer than I should Believing you might change your mind And those bright lights of Hollywood would fade in time.

down the road ahead
If it hurts at all
you aint showed it yet
I keep a lookin' for the slightest sign that you might miss
what you left behind
I know there's nothing stopping you now
but I'd settle for a slowdown.

down the road ahead
if it hurts at all
your just a tiny dot on that horizon line come on tap those brakes baby just one time
I know there's nothing stopping you now Im not asking you to turn back around

I'd settle for a slowdown come on just slow down I'd settle for a slow down.
