

Tail wind blowin'
Days ain't slowin'
Time is all that I see
Everyone chasing self preservation
But that don't mean that much to me

Cause I getta kick out of feeling
I'm the only man alive
Who gets a kick out of being..

Pipe dreams burning
People turning
Mama gotta get home tonight
Space invaders playing the creator
They're trying to zap you in the eye
Whatever gets you high

But I getta kick out of feeling
I'm the only man alive
Who gets a kick out of being by your side
When this whole world gets to much for me
There's a place left in my mind
Where I getta kick out of being

Wake up today
Bring home the pay
Nothing comes for free
Live to survive
Won't get you by

But I getta kick out of feeling
I'm the only man alive
Who gets a kick out of being by your side
When this whole world gets to much for me
There's a place left in my mind
Where I getta kick out of being

Yeah I getta kick out of feeling
I'm the only man alive
Who gets a kick out of being by your side
When this whole world gets to much for me
There's a place left in my mind
Where I getta kick out of being
