

Soul Revival

Diesel

Seconds pass like months
When you wanna run
I'm sitting at the bus stop, alive

Nowhere left to go
You've left me in the cold
Next thing that comes
I'm taking it for a ride

The damage has been done and now I wanna run

I need a soul! revival
I'm learning the art of survival
Gonna break these chains;
The shackles you put on me

You took a part of me
But I was blind to see
What I was doin'
I got myself in so deep

I threw in all my cards
Gave you the ace of hearts
How's I to know
You were playing the game for keeps

You showed your expertise
To bring a man to his knees... yeah

I need a soul! revival!
I'm learning the art of survival
Gonna break these chains
The shackles you put on me

Girl you proved to me
That things ain't always what they seem
I woke up from a dream
To find the house was on fire!
(guitar solo)
I need a soul! revival
I'm learning the art of survival
Gonna break these chains
The shackles you put on me

I need a soul revival!
I'm learning the art of survival
Nobody needs
A reason to be free

Soul! revival
Soul! revival!
Soul!
