

I Don't Have The Nerve

Forget all you know of the nameless revolution
They can hear all the things you said

I don't have the nerve
I don't have the words to say
I don't have the nerve

It's alright to know the television owns you
Clone yourself, then fuck yourself

I don't have the nerve
I don't have the nerve
I don't have the words to say
I don't have the nerve
