

Last Time I Saw Memphis

Diffuser

And the sparks are stacked
For a southern girl
She raised her popcorn bag
To the blue suede world
Should I take you back? Should I stay? Let's just wave
Say goodbye
(repeat 3x)
Lipstick to the mud
Chewing up old times
I can't forget enough
For the rest of my life
Should I take you back? Should I stay? Lets just wave
Say goodbye (repeat 3x)
I walk in the space between the Jesus freaks and velvet geeks
Around myself and back again
Hoping to find myself but
But all we are is all we'll ever be
Say goodbye (repeat 3x)
