

Wide Eyes (photograph So Well)

Diffuser

Ten years wasted, passing time like quarterbacks
Seniors lined up for their reunion photographs
Ten years passing, I've got a full mouth, so much to say
Leaping forward, I guess this is what they all became
You ran from your life, are you satisfied?

Years did us well
Fools now honored
Wide eyes photograph so well

Feeling awkward, now I got the chance to be the man
Your face changed so, but I recognize your pretentious stare
You ran from your life, are you satisfied?

Years did us well
Fools now honored
Wide eyes photograph so well

You ran from your life, are you satisfied?
Years did us well
Fools now honored
Wide eyes photograph so well
