

Made You Look

Diggy Simmons

Its been debated and contemplated if diggy's overrated, but what the haters have stated never penetrated. I'm so creative and innovative, and I stay motivated by the concept of famous and I ain't even made it. The flow I cater is something major an indicator of what happens later is greater than you've anticipated.

Some people love it the way I does it, that's why I leave them buzzing cause they calling me sick sumthin like robotissin. I hear you coughin I treat you often with free style, and as I'm walkin the people talkin they see me now and I don't rap for my age like lil bow wow.

The son of a king so why should I ever bow down. Young lyrists tuh nigga I be killin it, you hearing it the words out my mouth fresher than speariment. It's no experiment independent apperences the way that I'm apperin' I did it without my parents but im still God fearin' filled with the holy spirit so I fly like an angel and none of yall even near it life is just like a whip and I'm old enough to be steerin' it and you know I'm born in Queens so Nas gave me the clearence

Flow stupid, ha, I made you look yall all slaves to a page in my mac book they didn't know I could rap I had them all shook yeah I'm a fashion nigga here's a new look (2x)
