

You Got Me Now

Diggy Simmons

When you thinkin bout past staring thru the rearview mirror mirror
Kno I got you all thru the pain and I got you so that a never change no
You will never cry when your with me
But dnt worry cause you got me now (yeah you got me now)
You got me now (yeah you got me now)

Hey mrs.beautiful there's suttin that you need to know
All your thoughts of past pain they need to go
I know it's difficult, and keeping your mind up may be hard
But know that I got you until the end, not only the start.
So dnt be looking behind you, only to the future? I'll come find you.
Tell me why you crying boo, no need to rewind it back, to all of the times that, you been there nevermind that.
Cause it be hurtin me, prolly as close to as bad as it hurt you
My love is so strong that I can't subdue.
All that you been thru, but it's alright now
Cause every bad thought I will turn around

When you thinkin bout past staring thru the rearview mirror mirror
Kno I got you all thru the pain and I got you so that a never change no
You will never cry when your with me
But dnt worry cause you got me now
You got me now

Trust me when I say this
Never again, will you gotta live a day where you gotta spend ya time being disrespected by the wrong man
Your my queen, so I got different some things planned
For our future together, we will never be seperate.
We're an unseperable force, girl I'm with you forever
Your my only and ever,
Keeping you happy is a pleasure,
Nothing can measure up to me, and even be better
Just seeing those beautiful eyes brighten wen you smile
Or when you blush so hard, you put your head down.
It's more than that, you are the baddest around,
Your a phenomenal person, that I'm so happy I found.

When you thinkin bout past staring thru the rearview mirror mirror
Kno I got you all thru the pain and I got you so that a never change no
You will never cry when your with me

But dnt worry cause you got me now
You got me now
