

Someday maybe I'll know,
what's behind that window.
And I'll be on the inside,
looking out at the lonely night.

And I'll be by your side,
we'll hang the Christmas lights.
Get lost in better times,
if only in my mind.

CHORUS

Feel my heart start bursting with envy,
cause I'm still in the dark.
Feel my heart start bursting with envy,
cause I'm still in the dark.

Someday maybe I'll learn,
the comfort of strangers.
And I won't feel the winters blade,
looking out at the lonely night.

Cause I'll be by your side,
we'll hang the Christmas lights,
get lost in better times.
If wishes came trues,
I'd be in there with you.

CHORUS

Feel my heart start bursting with envy,
cause I'm still in the dark.
Feel my heart start bursting with envy,
cause I'm still in the dark.

Feel my heart start bursting with envy,
cause I'm still in the dark.
Feel my heart start bursting with envy,
cause I'm still in the dark.
