

Heaven Or Hell

Digital Daggers

I've got the same deep wounds as you,
My love can double as a weapon too
Say that you trust it and I'll set it free,
Turn it back on me,
Turn it back on me

We trade our secrets when it's safe,
Our ammunition when the fever breaks
Show me the side no one else sees,
Turn it back on me,
Turn it back on me

I am exposed, I am undone,
You tear the walls down one by one,

We tried to run, we tried to hide in fear of losing ourselves,
We tried to keep it all inside so we don't hurt someone else,
When all the demons come alive I'll still be under your spell,
This could be heaven or hell,
This could be heaven or hell

In you I found my only faith,
I lost my halo to your renegade
This love could bring me to my knees,
Turn it back on me,
Turn it back on me

I am exposed, I am undone,
Come tear my walls down one by one,

We tried to run, we tried to hide in fear of losing ourselves,
We tried to keep it all inside so we don't hurt someone else,
When all the demons come alive I'll still be under your spell,
This could be heaven or hell,
This could be heaven

This could be, this could be, this could be heaven or hell
This could be, this could be, this could be heaven or hell

We tried to run, we tried to hide in fear of losing ourselves,
We tried to keep it all inside so we don't hurt someone else,
When all the demons come alive I'll still be under your spell,
