

Where The Lonely Ones Roam

Digital Daggers

Won't you come out we can paint the town red.
Kill a little time you can sleep when you are dead.
Cause it isn't over yet,
get it outta your head.
Chase a couple hearts we could leave em in shreds.
Meet me in the gutter make the devil your friend.
Just remember what I said, cause it isn't over yet.
Just remember what I said, cause it isn't over yet.

CHORUS

Say you have a little faith in me,
just close your eyes and let me lead,
follow me home.
Need to have a little trust in me,
just close your eyes and let me lead,
follow me home, to where the lonely ones roam.

Won't you come out I've been waiting for you,
holding my breath til my body turned blue.
We got everything to lose, yeah I'm waiting on you.
Suns come up and there's no one else around,
meet me in the shadows while you tell me what you found.
You got everything to lose, yeah I'm waiting on you.

CHORUS

Say you have a little faith in me,
just close your eyes and let me lead,
follow me home.
Need to have a little trust in me,
just close your eyes and let me lead,
follow me home, to where the lonely ones roam.
To where the lonely ones roam.

Roam with me, come down to where all the others fell,
Get lost in the dark to find yourself.
Just remember what I said,
no it isn't over yet.

CHORUS

Say you have a little faith in me,
just close your eyes and let me lead,
follow me home.
Need to have a little trust in me,
just close your eyes and let me lead,
follow me home, to where the lonely ones roam.
To where the lonely ones roam.

Need to have a little trust in me,
just close your eyes and let me lead,
follow me home, to where the lonely ones roam.
