

Fight Til I Fall

Digital Summer

Can you hear the battle cry
Screaming for you, dead or alive
Ready or not now, come on lets go
Welcome to the front line
Rise above or end up alone
Can't be afraid to die
Only the strong will survive

This is a fight to the finish now
Nowhere to run, there's no way out
Nothing to lose when you've lost it all
To the the death I will fight till I fall

No choice left but to face the fire
No sympathy for the weak or the tired
Ready or not now the time has come
Welcome to the nightmare
The agony has only just begun
Don't dare deny you're scared
Only the strong will survive
