Yo Hump, gonna do a lil somethin like this

Lots of little knots that need to be tied
A pair of knuckleheads walkin side by side down the altar, you say to yourself, "I will not falter"
But you're thinkin it -- how did I get myself in this predicament?
Saw the def cutie that made your heart sing
You hop to the shop to get a ring (a big diamond)
You hop to the shop to buy a ring (a BIG DIAMOND!)
You hopped to the shop and got a ring...
Felt left out cause all your friends are hooked
But now you're at the altar, your goose is cooked
You say a prayer, "Lord please give me strength to make it through"
Opened up your nervous mouth, slipped and said, "I do"
I don't, IdoIdoIdo, I don't I don't, IdoIdo, I don't, I don't Look you do son, now hurry up and kiss the brizide
Peace said the father, cause now the knot is tied

Tie the knot, tie tie the knot
Yeah it's time to make the move
Tiffi tiffi tie the knot
