

Everything is anything new
The future is a thing that's a danger to you
Even though minimum is maximum
Going back, my worthy cap black enough

I don't care what's up with you
Is it a way that you're going move?
Don't you get your ass of them wheels
That you ever scared, copy too

The future isn't part of your identity
Never will it be partying
Never will it be a personality
Dapper as you will define

Everything is anything new
Everything is anything new

Anything new, is anything new?
Is anything new, is anything new?
Is anything new, is anything new?
Is anything new, is anything new?

Is anything new, is anything new?
Is anything new, is anything new?
Is anything new, is anything new?
Is anything new, is anything
