

Between the sky and heaven

Dimas Bilan

I was looking for you
And I wish I could know
You'd come to slip away

I would give you a clue
But I just didn't show
That you were meant to stay

While we are getting so lonely
Love is still up there but only
Between the sky and heaven

Nothing can ever compare
To what it's like to be there
Between the sky and heaven

As we keep rushing like crazy
Can we still see it's amazing
Between the sky and heaven

But after all the days of despair
I know I'll meet you up there
Between the sky and heaven

I am waiting for you
And I know you can sense me
Though you're miles and miles away

On this side of the world
I am feeling you too
Without a single word you say

While we are getting so lonely
Love is still up there but only
Between the sky and heaven

Nothing can ever compare
To what it's like to be there
Between the sky and heaven

As we keep rushing like crazy
Can we still see it's amazing
Between the sky and heaven

But after all the days of despair
I know I'll meet you up there
Between the sky and heaven

While we are getting so lonely
Love is still up there but only
Between the sky and heaven

Nothing can ever compare
To what it's like to be there
Between the sky and heaven

As we keep rushing like crazy

Can we still see it's amazing
Between the sky and heaven

But after all the days of despair
I know I'll meet you up there
Between the sky and heaven
