Lepers Among Us

Dimmu Borgir

Annihilate!

The commotion breeding the perverse For bloodbath is on your doorstep A mass impending threat
The perfection of religion
Becoming our death

Do not respond blindly
To growing gardens in decay
Stand guard when visitors fall silent
Blow the candles out, end the road here

No solace will be found Within elements of the tribe When covered with filth from all sides Compassion will fail

Their promises are honored
In a mind controlled state
The absence of reality, reason and logic
Prove failure of faith

Enriched by the presence of it's clarity Darkness descends, everyone dies

For wisdom aligns in our favor Illuminated before our eyes

Uncover!

A new beginning, the inevitable dawn Justice will be given where justice is due And guide the righteous ones Back to the final resting ground To perceive the truly hellbound

Demonstrate superiority
A grand gesture of liberation need no judge or jury
Demons rate inferiority
Scatter the remains of the prey
